

CHINA AIRLINES

Declaration for Cat/Dog Transport as Cargo

This form must be provided upon reservation for shipper to check and comply with.

This is to certify that (If any one of the items is not checked, the shipment will be rejected):

☐ I have read the “Transporting cat/dog advisory” regarding pet travel on CI Cargo website <https://cargo.china-airlines.com/ccnetv2/content/services/LiveAnimals.aspx>

☐ The cat/dog(s) is (are) properly described and packed, and is in proper condition for carriage by air according to the current edition of the IATA Live Animals Regulations and all applicable carrier and governmental regulations.

☐ The cat/dog(s) is (are) in good health and in proper condition for carriage by air, also without any of the following condition.

- a. The cat/dog has been pregnant for more than 40 days,
- b. The cat/dog is less than 7 days after giving birth.
- c. Newborn cat/dog is less than 10 weeks old.

☐ I have obtained all required export, import and/or transit permits, health and/or rabies vaccination certificates, microchip form/certificate required by the national authorities of the countries of export, transshipment and import.

☐ The cat/dog(s) has (have) been appropriately acclimatized before travelling.

Note: Acclimatization – Adaptive response to stress in captive condition, to cold or warm environment inherent to the carriage by air.

Air Waybill No. _____

Shipper's Signature _____ Date _____

- By signing this form, you've agreed that China Airlines may collect, process and use your personal information within the necessary scope for the aforesaid purposes of collection.
- Visit <https://www.china-airlines.com/sea/zh/terms-and-conditions/privacy-protection> for detail